Renewing your Smallholder Club membership

At the end of your annual contract, we will write to you about renewing for another year.

Cancelling Smallholder Club

Cancelling your smallholder club membership during your annual contract requires you to give us 3 months’ notice. If the smallholder club is cancelled during the annual contract, we will charge you for any goods received under the smallholder club, but any payments you have already made towards the smallholder club will be offset against charges. Should the cancellation result in a balance owing to the Forth Valley Vet Practice, an invoice will be sent to you and payment will become due immediately. No credit will be given if the cost of goods received is less than the amount paid at the time of cancellation.

Payment Information

The first payment will be taken when you apply for the club thereafter payment will be charged to your account on the 1st of the month, invoices are due to be paid within 14 days.

While part of the smallholder club your details submitted on this form will be retained within the 12-month contract. As part of the club, you will receive quarterly email newsletters and receive communication regarding smallholder club meetings via email or phone. If you would not like to be contacted about these benefits, please notify the practice.
