Christmas Special Newsletter

Tis the Season to be Jolly!

Well, after a somewhat challenging year we have made it to Christmas! I think we can all agree that everyone will be making the most of the festive season this year.

The Kernow Farm and Equine team would like to thank everyone that has supported us during this pandemic and the patience of everyone while we have all been adapting to this seemingly new way of life.

Onwards and upwards for 2021 and we look forward to seeing all your clients and patients next year.

We wish each and every one of you and your four legged friends a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Start 2021 with a saving!

FIREWORK SAFETY

ITS THAT TIME OF YEAR
WHEN LOTS OF PEOPLE
ARE CELEBRATING WITH FIREWORKS BOTH WITH ORGANISED AND
PERSONAL DISPLAYS

HOW TO KEEP YOUR HORSE
AS CALM AS POSSIBLE:

- Keep calm—horses sense anxiety and stress keep your mood low
- Know times and dates of fire work displays and speak to neighbours ask them to inform you if they are planning on their own display. Knowledge is key!
- Keep your horses in their normal routine to avoid further stress
- Fire safety—although it's rare to have rogue fireworks don't be caught out have a fire extinguisher to hand
- Use distractions—give plenty of forage, maybe some extra tasty treats like a hanging swede.
- Check your horse regularly
- Radio—handy to have playing in the background as a distraction

IF YOU FEEL YOUR HORSE
WILL BE UNDULY STRESSED
SPEAK TO YOUR VET ABOUT
OTHER OPTIONS
