

Please email completed forms to Tess Rose tess.rose@rhodes-vets.co.uk

Veterinary Physiotherapy Referral Form

Veterinary Surgeon
Practice
Address
Telephone
Email

Client name
Address
Telephone
Email

Pet name
Breed
Age
Species: Cat/Dog
Male / Female
Entire / Neutered

Relevant Summary of History / Surgical History

Current Medication

The Veterinary Surgery Exceptions Order 1962 states that animal physiotherapists can perform physiotherapy on animals, after having a consultation with the veterinary surgeon in charge of the case, Who has diagnosed the condition and feels physiotherapy is appropriate under his/hers direction via referral.

Veterinary Surgeons Signature:	Date:
---------------------------------------	--------------

A written progress report is provided for every patient please tick if you would like this by Email  Post